Spot the Mistake Story

One or two people followed Jesus. Jesus' friends were worried how to feed everyone. A little girl came forward with her lunch. She had two packets of crisps and five ham sandwiches. Jesus thanked God for the food and gave it to everyone who was there. There were five hundred people there. When they had finished eating there were seven baskets of left overs. Later Jesus' friends crossed the lake in their boat. Jesus swam out to meet them.