

The rich man wants eternal life, life with God for ever. How will he get it? Can he get there by being a good, religious (and rich) person? And if someone like him can't make it - how could we?