

TREASURE RAP

Everyone used to think I was cool -
the richest person in the school.
A bike, a wii, a flat screen telly,
designer tops, designer wellies.

I always had to have the best
one step ahead of all the rest.
I always wanted the latest stuff,
and more was never quite enough.

But all those things just made me frown.
How could I keep them safe and sound?
What if robbers nick my bike
or moths get at that top I like?

Will my X box 360 last?
They bring the next one out so fast.
It didn't make much sense to me
When Jesus offers more for free...

Life lived for him is for all time.
Never spoiled by age or crime.
Put him first and you will see treasure that lasts for eternity.
