

Jesus Chooses Some Followers

(Mark 1:14-20)

<sup>14</sup> Jesus went into Galilee and told people the Good News from God. <sup>15</sup> He said, "The right time is now here. God's kingdom has come! Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News!"

<sup>16</sup> Jesus was walking by Lake Galilee. He saw Simon and his brother Andrew. These two men were fishermen, and they were throwing a net into the lake to catch fish. <sup>17</sup> Jesus said to them, "Come and follow me, and I will make you a different kind of fishermen. You will catch people, not fish." <sup>18</sup> Straightaway they left their nets and followed Jesus.

<sup>19</sup> Still walking by the Lake, Jesus saw two more brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in their boat, getting their nets ready to catch fish. <sup>20</sup> When Jesus saw the two brothers, he told them to come with him. They left their dad and followed Jesus.
